Hartley Michon Robb Hannon LLP Recognized by Chambers & Partners for 13th Consecutive Year

BOSTON – Hartley Michon Robb Hannon LLP is proud to announce that, for the 13th consecutive year, the firm has been recognized as “Band One” by Chambers and Partners in the Chambers USA 2023 rankings for their preeminence in Labor & Employment: Mainly Plaintiffs in Massachusetts. The firm is one of three firms to be ranked in the highest tier in Massachusetts.

Chambers’ review notes that the firm is known for being “a distinguished group of leading plaintiff attorneys offering expert advice to executives and professionals in many areas of labor and employment litigation” and “offers demonstrable strength in a diverse range of issues including severance, compensation and restrictive covenants.” Chambers also noted the firm’s “expertise in arbitrations” and “praise for providing strong representation in discrimination claims.”

The firm’s four Partners, H. James Hartley, Katherine J. Michon, Barbara Robb and Patrick Hannon, received individual recognition in the Chambers USA 2023 rankings for their leading work in executive advocacy, employment law and litigation.

Chambers rankings are well respected and independent, based on in-depth market research conducted across several months including their research analysts speaking to thousands of lawyers, law firm clients and legal experts across the U.S.
